Business Assistance Partnership Between
• Bridgeton Area Chamber of Commerce
• Cumberland Development Corporation
• Cooperative Business Assistance Corporation

RE: June 12 Breakfast Workshop Announcing the New Partnership and Explaining How it Can Benefit You, Your Bank and Your Customers

Please join us on Tuesday, June 12, 2012, 8:30 – 10 AM at The Green Olive Restaurant, 610 Shiloh Pike, Bridgeton (in Hopewell Township) for breakfast and a workshop announcing the new partnership between Bridgeton Area Chamber of Commerce (BACC), Cumberland Development Corporation (CDC) and Cooperative Business Assistance Corporation (CBAC) to provide additional business assistance services for the area and to explain how this new partnership, particularly using the loan programs of CBAC, can:

- help you develop new customers
- retain existing customers
- provide loans to your customers in partnership with CBAC that otherwise you may not have been able to provide in these difficult economic times
- provide support for the BACC and CDC

Harry Stone, Executive Director and Senior Lender for CBAC, Jody Hirata, Senior Vice President for Colonial Bank and Chairperson of the BACC and Tony Stanzone, Executive Director of the BACC and CDC will be the speakers and hosts for this special workshop.

Please join us for this free workshop and breakfast. Invite others from your bank -- lenders, branch managers, business development officers or others. Please make your reservations with the BACC office by June 8. Call 856-455-1312, fax to 856-453-9795 or send email to bacc@baccnj.com.

Sincerely,

Jody Hirata, Chairperson
Bridgeton Area Chamber of Commerce
Senior Vice President, Colonial Bank
