Learn about the Junior ROTC Program at Bridgeton High School

Mission: Develop citizens of character dedicated to serving their nation and community.

George Linen, Sr. will be our speaker on Tuesday, Feb. 18, noon at Terrigno's Fairfield Inn. He will talk about The BHS Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFJROTC) and how it provides students with a look into the intriguing world of civilian, industrial and military aerospace science and provides the opportunity to develop their leadership skills. Participants discover the historic and scientific aspects of aerospace technology and achieve self-reliance, self-discipline and other characteristics found in good leaders. Thank you to Inspira Health Network for sponsoring this meeting.

Due to federal budget cuts, this character-building organization needs some help sending its students to events outside of the area. The Chamber Foundation is going to contribute and we invite Chamber members to consider making a donation at the meeting on Feb. 18 or by calling the Chamber office.

COST: $20.00 PER PERSON IF RESERVATION IS MADE WITH THE CHAMBER OFFICE BY FEB 17, 2014.

IN ORDER TO PROPERLY PLAN FOR OUR MEMBERS AND GUESTS, ADVANCE REGISTRATION IS REQUESTED.
